

March 6th - Elixir's 6th studio album 'Voyage Of The Eagle' is released on CD by the band's new label Dissonance Productions. The vinyl label of Dissonance Productions, Back On Black, release the album on stunning blue 12" vinyl in a gatefold sleeve.

March 7th - Elixir play their first show since 2012, appearing at Burr Fest in London. The festival raises money for MS sufferers in memory of late Iron Maiden and Elixir drummer, Clive Burr. The show is also the farewell appearance of founding member and bass player Kevin Dobbs.

September 13th - Elixir announce the permanent replacement of Kevin Dobbs. Ex-Solsikk bassist Mark Mulcaster joins the band.

In late December, Elixir's "Voyage Of The Eagle" is named as the best Metal album of 2020 by Chris Chantler in the Metal Hammer writers' poll.